Subject: 70F, 7LB suppressions.

Mark,

revisiting the request for suppressions. We understand these are large files so the following may help in moving forward. We definitely need the file today.

1. Typically, Lexus has little or no suppressions. If correct, then OK the file and pass it on first.
2. Excel can be set up for conditional suppressions. For example any record with "Toyota" or a specific address in it. If you don't want to do this yourself, our engineer (Andy) can and provide the file back to you already marked suppressed for your review.

If there is anything we can do to assist your efforts, please speak up.

Thank you.

Mike
